SALISBURY OPTIMIST GULL CLASSIC

The women's tournament began in 1978 and has been held virtually every year since. In the 1990s, host Salisbury State finished as the runner-up the first three years and then won the next three championships. The Sea Gulls have a total of eight first place finishes and eight second place finishes. In last year's tournament, Salisbury defeated Savannah 64-55 for the championship. North Carolina Wesleyan won the tournament in 1989 and 1993, defeating Salisbury State both times. Cabrini and Frostburg are both making their second appearance.

THE OPTIMIST CREED

Promise Yourself -

To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.

To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.

To make all your friends feel that there is something in them.

To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.

To think only of the best, to work only for the best and to expect only the best.

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.

To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.

To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.

To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.

To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.
